Re: Notice of intent to act under Section 11(a) of the Entry into Israel Law 5712-1952

I hereby inform you that I am considering the revocation of your permit for permanent residency in Israel, in accordance with the powers vested in me under Section 11(a) of the Entry into Israel Law 5712-1952.

The section sets forth:

The Minister of Interior may, at his discretion

(1)...

(2) Revoke a permit for residency granted under this Law

The intent to revoke the residency permit rests on the murderous act you committed on September 13, 2015, when, according to information provided by the Israel Police, you threw rocks at a vehicle. As a result of this act, an Israeli civilian was killed.

You committed this act using the freedom of movement granted to you as a result of carrying an Israeli identity card.

This act is a clear breach of allegiance to the State of Israel.

In the circumstances, given the severity of the act you committed and the blatant breach of allegiance to the State of Israel described above, I am, as aforesaid, considering exercising my power to revoke your permit for permanent residency in Israel.

You are hereby granted the right to present to me, in writing, any arguments you may have with respect to the aforesaid, within 30 days, following which, I will consider your arguments prior to making a decision.
