Decision

The current situation at the Employment Bureau and the Population Authority Bureau in East Jerusalem is far from satisfactory, to say the utmost least.

We considered issuing an order nisi, but at this stage we will wait for an update from the Respondents regarding the steps being taken and the implementation of these steps.

This Court expects initiative and creativity from the Respondents, and that they take operative steps and assign high priority to the issue at the core of the petition before us.

An update will be submitted, as stated, within 90 days.

Issued today, Adar 28, 5778 (15.3.2018), in the presence of the parties.
